RE: INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON CUSTOMARY LAW, THE CONSTITUTION AND STATUTORY LAW AND A BOOK LAUNCH

The National Assembly and the Conrad Adenauer Stiftung herewith invite Media Practitioners to attend and cover the International Conference to mark the Customary Law Ascertainment Project of the Council of Traditional Leaders in Namibia.

Details:

EVENT: International Conference on Customary Law and Book Launch
DATE: Thursday, 11 February 2016
TIME: 8h30
VENUE: Room C1, Parliament Building

The Speaker of the National Assembly, Honourable Professor Peter H. Katjavivi, MP, will officiate at this event. The conference is primarily for Members of Parliament, invited Academics and Traditional Leaders whose Customary Laws are covered in Volume 3 of this series of books.

The event will also be attended by Ms Fatimata Diallo from the University of Cape Town and Inkosi S.E. Mahlangu, Deputy Chairperson of the House of Traditional Leaders of South Africa. The two eminent guests will present a paper titled: Ascertainment of Customary Law: What is this and what is it for?

At this conference, the book: Customary Law Ascertainment Volume 3. The Customary Law of the Nama, Ovaherero, Ovambanderu, and San communities of Namibia will be launched. The book launch is starting at 12h15, and is open to the public.
