BILL

To amend the Education Act, 2001, so as to remove the requirement for compulsory contributions to school development fund; to provide pre-primary, primary, secondary and special education tuition and examination free of charge; to provide for reasonable and adequate facilities to State schools; and to provide for incidental matters.

BE IT ENACTED as passed by the Parliament, and assented to by the President, of the Republic of Namibia as follows:

Amendment of section 25 of Act No. 16 of 2001

1. Section 25 of the Education Act, 2001 (in this Act referred to as the "principal Act") is amended:

(a) by the substitution for subsection (1), (2) and (3) of the following subsections:

“(1) Subject to section 81(2), a school board may, with the approval of the majority vote of the school parents present and voting at a meeting convened by the school board by at least 30 days’ notice to such parents, establish a school development fund with the aim -

(a) to provide, develop and improve reasonable and necessary facilities at school; and

(b) to uplift and improve educational, sport and cultural activities at school[.], if the facilities or activities cannot be reasonably provided by the State.

(2) A school development fund consists of -

(a) money received in respect of any voluntary contributions [referred to in subsection (9)(a)] by any person;

(b) money received from donations, bequests or any other source through fund-raising campaigns or official school related activities approved by the principal and the school board; and

- (c) interest earned on investments of money standing to the credit of the fund.
- (3) A school development fund must not be used -
 - (a) for any purpose which does not directly benefit the learners or the school; [or]
 - (b) for providing loans or any kind of borrowing by any person[.]; or
 - (c) for channelling State funds from the Ministry or regional council to defray expenditure related to school activities provided by the State.”.

(b) by the deletion of subsections (8) to (13), inclusive.
