

NATIONAL ASSEMBLY
MEDIA RELEASE

11 September 2017

Attention: News Editors/Parliamentary Correspondents

RE: ASSEMBLY RESUMES SITTING

1. The Sixth Session of the Sixth Parliament resumes tomorrow, Tuesday, 12 September 2017. This Session –will run from September 12 to November 23, 2017. So far, the National Assembly has received the Gaming and Entertainment Control Bill 2017 for tabling.
2. During the August recess, several Parliamentary Standing Committees undertook visits to the regions to investigate government projects and conduct public hearings on items referred to them by the House. It is expected that reports on the activities undertaken during the recess will be tabled in the House for consideration.
3. The following Bills were received from the National Council without amendments: Whistle-blower Protection Bill 2017; Controlled Wildlife Products and Trade Amendment Bill 2017; One-Stop Border Posts Control Bill 2017; Usury Amendment Bill 2017; Regional Council Amendment Bill 2016 and Namibia Time Bill 2017.

Other Bills received with amendments are: The Lotteries Bill 2017; Namibia Revenue Agency Bill 2017 and Local Authorities Amendment Bill 2016.

To access Bills and other Parliament related information, log-in on www.parliament.na, you may also follow events and activities of Parliament on Facebook, @ Parliament of the Republic of Namibia.

ENDS

Issued by: David Nahogandja
Public Relations Officer
Tel: (061) 288 2583
Cell: 081 242 3118
E-mail: d.nahogandja@parliament.na